'round town

with Betty Allen...

With half the world starving, the entire nation is concerned over the labor situation as it concerns the canneries. Here in the Valley, while the broader issues remain present, the plight of the grower, the dilemma of the canner, and the resultant effect on everyone are so close that it is difficult to maintain a detached attitude.

A large turnout witnessed the excellent production of the senior class play with a cast which distinguished themselves. The play which dealt with getting out the high school paper was full of entrancing ideas for The Press. Although it led to a lot of difficulties, the barter system was used extensively by the advertising department. Anyone want to trade some butter for an ad? Another idea from the play that might be used was a gossip column fashioned on the New York night-spot reporters which also led to trouble. It might be done tho—"what delightful lovely was seen last night at the Blue Jay with what well-known man about town?"

The Footlighters and their friends, 38 strong, invaded Monterey via Greyhound bus last Saturday evening for a performance of the Troupers of the Gold Coast in "Under the Gaslight". This melodrama was given here by the Footlighters before the war, so they viewed the performance with a certain amount of nostalgia. The whole group had a picnic supper on the way down and, after the performance, were entertained at the Carmel home of the Robert Weavers, former Campbellites and Footlighters. Everyone, including the bus d river, had a wonderful time.

There's a rumor that Bob Weaver will have the lead in the next production at the Monterey Theater. The Weavers own and operate the attractive hotel and apartments, The Green Lantern, and, in addition, the ex-Footlighter, is representing the AAA in Carmel and Pebble Beach.

Still on the subject of Monterey, several members of the Gold Coast Troupers were on hand Monday night for the performance of Elisabeth Bergner in "The Two Mrs. Carrolls".

Did you know that Gene Hodges had an injured hand . . . that Stella McClintock and Janis Henley won camellia plants as door prizes at the Camellia show . . . that the Ray Mathises are expected home at the end of this month . . that Junice Benson will live with her parents when they move soon on Alice Ave. . . . that LBen Howard is engaged in juvenile court work evenings . . . that an unidentified man brought $25 worth of gold pieces found in an old house into the Orchard City Grocery to find out what they were?

Mrs. R. W. Kennedy celebrated her 90th birthday last Saturday. Her children and grandchildren called on her during the day and on Sunday she attended her granddaughter's wedding.

Returning from their Southern California vacation, the Robert L. Reeses report that Dr. W. I. Merrill has joined the staff of the Birmingham Veterans' Hospital in the Van Nuys area. He says that is addition to doing work that is vitally needed, it is a perfect doctor's job for he's now on a 40-hour week. The Merrills sent their regards to all of their Campbell friends.

Every week a name will be drawn from our list of new subscribers and printed in the classified ad column. The person whose name appears there may receive two free passes to the Campbell Theater by calling at the Press Office. Look and see if your name is there!

Red Cross Drive Lags

Only $552.25 has been received to date in the Red Cross drive, according to Mrs. H. F. Cousins, campaign director. With a goal of $4700 the slowness of contributors will have to be remedied by additional workers. The Bradley Manor and Meridian Road districts are particularly in need of more solicitors and Mrs. Cousins asks that volunteers contact her at Campbell 2087 or Campbell 3430.

Workers in the Cambrian district are: Mesdames H. Carman, F. A. Coombs, M. Daniels, C. Fagalde, E. Gripenstraw, H. Jensen, George Leigh, J. E. Long, D. Pressler, J. Shelley, O. Spillman, R. Stoner, and M. Torrington.

Mrs. P. Earl Stuart is working on Williams Road and "Dad" Lee, Marilyn Ott and Mrs. Harry Freitas have been added to the list of town workers.

Anyone who is not solicited may turn his donation in at the Water Co. office.

"Although the war is over," Mrs. Cousins said, "the needs of the Red Cross go on that they may continue to help the servicemen and their families and to offer all the other services known throughout the world."

Quiet Wedding at Little Home

At a quiet afternoon ceremony performed by Bude H. Little, minister of the Church of Christ, at his home last Friday, Miss Bonnie Fay Noonkester became the bride of Utah F. Ruyle. Both the mother of the bride and the mother of the bridegroom were present for the rites.

Post Office Seeking New Location

Since the present location and facilities of the post office are inadequate the department is seeking a new location for operations. No definite steps have as yet been taken.

The district postal inspector has informed the Campbell Building and Investment Co., owners of the building now housing the department, that he expects to be relocated by Aug. 1.

Pending before Congress is the federal building program which would give Campbell a new $85,000 postoffice but it is considered doubtful if, even though the bill were passed, construction could be accomplished in time for the move.

The post office has occupied the present premise for the past 26 years, according to Ira Grim, postmaster.

Queen Enters Landscape Gardening Business

S. R. Queen, Sunnyvale-Saratoga Road, has started a landscape gardening business which will be known as the Santa Clara Valley Landscaping Co.

Equipped with power tools, the new company will do any kind of general yard work and will have, through its contact with five nurseries, any type of plant or shrub for planting.

An experienced gardener, Queen, was in the landscaping business in Springfield, Missouri, before coming to the valley a short time ago.

C. of C. To Meet Wednesday

A large attendance is expected at next Wednesday's Chamber of Commerce meeting to be held at the library at 8 p. m. A discussion of the proposed plans for investigating incorporation is planned for the session.

Martin S. Walsh, secretary of the Chamber, announces that nine more additional members have been added to the group during the past wek. They are: Yreme Beauty Service (Louise A. Emory), Dr. Wyland R. Morgan, George E. Jeffers, Campbell Market (Stanley Henline), Henry W. Hoelling of the Campbell Market, Mathis Real Estate Co., Campbell Furniture Co., Pepper Tree Market, and Joseph Dahl.

Membership in the Chamber is open to anyone interested in joining and the group urges all interested residents to attend the next meeting.

Growers Seek Price Support

In order to prevent any loss of food, a telegram has been sent by Frank J. Polak, apricot chairman for Santa Clara Farm Bureau Federation, to Secretary of Agriculture Clinton Anderson, urging institution of a government price support and purchase program for whole dried apricots.

It was pointed out in the telegram that early reports indicate another large apricot crop, which may result in substantial financial losses such as recorded in 1944 and other years.

In a telegram signed by Ray B. Wiser, State Farm Bureau president, attention was called to the cannery labor situation. Wiser said canners and freezers, as well as growers, were very much concerned that labor difficulties will interfere with continuous cannery operations. Apricot growers are particularly vulnerable as apricots are the first major fruit crop canned each year and even a few days of interrupted cannery operations would result in heavy losses.

No Red Tape For Canning Sugar

Housewives will obtain sugar for home canning this year through use of their family ration books, the OPA has announced. Beginning Monday, March 11 through October 31, householders may obtain five pounds of canning sugar by merely surrendering spare stamp No. 9 to their grocer. No application is necessary under the program adopted for this year's use, OPA pointed out.

Most families will find spare stamp No. 9 in their War Ration Books No. 4. Others, including many returned servicemen, who have received their books only recently, will find the stamp in the single sheet sugar ration book issued them in lieu of Book 4.

As no addition to the regular consumer ration of five pounds per person each four-month period can be foreseen now, housewives are urged to budget their sugar use so that canning sugar will be used only as intended, OPA advised.

"The responsibility for holding home canning sugar stamps until the family is ready to put up fruits and vegetables is now placed squarely on the householders," OPA officials stated. "We are confident that American families will preserve more of their own fruit this year than ever before."

New Honors Given To Campbell Artist, F. H. Cutting

By LYN THOMPSON.

Mr. F. H. Cutting, artist, and long time resident of Campbell, has scored two more points to add to his successful career. His picture, "The Vineyard", is now on display at the Civic Auditorium in Oakland. It is included in the annual exhibit of oil paintings and sculptures, sponsored by the Oakland Art Gallery. The exhibit includes conservative, intermediate, and radical work. It will be on display from March 3 to 31, inclusive. His "El Pico Blanco", a mountain landscape, was on exhibit last month in Santa Cruz at the Civic Auditorium. It was chosen for display by the sponsors, The Santa Cruz Art League.

F. H. Cutting

Mr. Cutting has spent many years putting the beauties of our Santa Clara Valley on canvas, and his paintings have made it well-known to people thousands of miles away. Hundreds of his paintings are in homes hereabout, also, but, because of our artist's modesty, many people here in his home town are not acquainted with his work.

As a boy, Mr. Cutting lived on a ranch and even then played with his paints and crayons. He graduated from San Jose State Normal in 1897. In 1903 he married Clara Snavely, the woman, who through the years became his best audience and severest critic. During his early married life he ranched and painted as a hobby, studying under anyone who could help him. When his pictures began to sell, he gave up his other duties, and his hobby became his work. He still paints with all the enthusiasm of a hobbyist, and through his years of work and study, has acquired a really remarkable ability to combine colors for beauty and effect.

Mr. Cutting studied art for many seasons under Miss Booth at the College of the Pacific when it was located in San Jose. Among other artists and teachers with whom he has worked, were the late William Adams, well-known Scotch artist of the Monterey Peninsula; the late Charles Harmon of San Jose; and Arthur Hill Gilbert, Carmel artist and member of the National Academy of Art. Mr. Cutting has had several one-man shows at Stanford during the past years, which is an honor given sparingly. Many of his pictures have found a resting place on the walls of homes in foreign countries. His paintings have been handled by Gumps of San Francisco, and Fred Morcom of Oakland, and others.

At the present Mr. Cutting has two art classes, one he calls his junior class made up of young people, and the other of adults. He takes each class out painting with him once a week and gives to them unstintingly of his time and knowledge. He is quick to encourage and praise any show of progress among his pupils, and that, with his grand sense of humor, makes him an excellent teacher.

Mr. Cutting has his studio at his home on Harrison Ave., here in Campbell. He keeps many of his paintings on exhibit there constantly and visitors are always welcome.

Juvenile Shop To Open On Winchester Road Soon

Scheduled to open by the middle of April is a new children's wearing apparel shop to be known as "The Dresser Drawer". Owners of the new enterprise are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Murdock and Mr. and Mrs. LBen Howard. The south apartment of the D. H. Cramer house at 143 S. Winchester Road, has been chosen as the location for the new store.

"The Dresser Drawer" will cater to children from the cradle to college with well-known and popular lines of clothing. Besides necessities and luxuries for the baby and the small child, the shop will include sweaters and skirts for the bobby-soxers.

Before opening, the shop will be completely redecorated and remodeled.

The owners are well-known in Campbell and active in civic affairs. LBen Howard, a graduate of Stanford University, has been a teacher in San Jose for the past ten years. He now teaches at Abraham Lincoln High school and devotes much of his time to juvenile delinquency work. A resident of Campbell since 1938, he is a member of the Campbell Community Council and participates in church work.

Mrs. Howard, a graduate of the Palo Alto schools, is the mother of three daughters, and is active in church work and in Eastern Star.

Jack Murdock, secretary of the Campbell Water Co. for the past 13 years, was student body president at Campbell Union High school and later attended San Jose State college and graduated from San Jose College of Commerce. He is past president of the Kiwanis club, has served as campaign manager of the Community Chest and as chairman of the last three infantile paralysis drives; he is a member of the Community Council and several fraternal organizations.

His wife has had past business experience of her own for she owned and operated a beauty parlor here at one time. She has a son and daughter; is a member of the Country Woman's club and Past Noble Grand of the Rebekah lodge.

The new business will be operated by Mrs. Murdock and Mrs. Howard.

Cambrian Wants Fire Protection

The Cambrian's Men's club is busy getting signatures of the Cambrian district residents and nouseholders who agree with the following petition of the club's to the Board of Supervisors asking them to remedy the existing situation in regard to fire protection:

WHEREAS, there is existing a tentative plan for county wide fire protection;

NOW, THEREFORE, be it resolved that the Cambrian Men's Club does approve said plan for county wide fire protection, and does hereby urge and request the Board of Supervisors to submit said plan to the voters of Santa Clara County at the forthcoming general election; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Board of Supervisors of Santa Clara County be urged and requested to immediately install fire mains and fire hydrants throughout the unincorparated areas of Santa Clara County by contract with private concerns, or otherwise, in order to provide some measure of fire protection for said unincorporated areas pending the adoption and execution of the said general plan of fire protection.

Dated this 26th day of February, A. D., 1946.

CAMBRIAN MEN'S CLUB.

San Jose-Los Gatos Road Property Purchased

G. K. Shraeder and Clem Hocking have recently purhased the property on which the Pepper Tree Market and the Cambrian Hardware Co. are located. The hardware store was completely demolished by fire last month and the grocery damaged.

The property was formerly owned by Frank Coombs, who with G. A. Horton, operated the Cambrian Hardware Co.

Plans for rebuilding the hardware store are under way, the Pepper Tree Market having already been repaired. In addition to the rebuilding, Shraeder and Hocking are planning another store building adjacent to the market.

When the hardware store is rebuilt it will again be operated by Coombs and Horton.

Footlighters Will Give Play

"The Male Animal" is the play chosen for presentation in the near future by the Footlighters, it was decided at the pot-luck supper meeting held in the playroom of the Bud Levenberg home Tuesday evening. The play will be sponsored by the Campbell Post of the American Legion.

Director Dean Chamberlin is choosing the cast this week.

Allan Blaine Ill

Allan Blaine, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blaine, has been ill for several days.

Eugene Peters Transferred

Private First Class Eugene R. Peters, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Peters, 161 Rosemary St., Campbell, has been transferred from the 505th Military Police Battalion in Vienna, to the 83rd Infantry Division Artillery at Vocklabruck, Austria, to await redeployment to the United States.

Private Peters was assigned overseas in October, 1944, and served in combat with the 505th, which is now a part of General Mark W. Clark's United States Forces in Austria. He wears the Good Conduct Medal, Victory Medal, Occupation Ribbon, and ETO Ribbon with two battle participation stars.

Before entering the service in September, 1943, he was employed as a tractor operator for two years with the Western Gravel Corporation in Campbell.

Miss May Farley Appointed School Secretary

Miss May Farley was appointed school secretary at the school board meeting Monday evening, and will begin her duties April 1. Miss Farley occupied the position several years ago and has since then been employed at the Murison Label Co., in San Jose. She is a sister of Guy Farley, Campbell real estate man.

Up for discussion at the session were the teachers' salaries and plans for a new cafeteria. Although badly needed, the allotment budgeted for the cafeteria is not enough to meet present building prices.

EDITORIAL

Have you walked down Campbell Ave. in the afternoon and seen the litter of orange peelings, candy wrappers, gum wrappers, wax paper from sandwiches and other odds and ends of debris?

Most of it is carelessly dropped by the school children but adults are g uilty too, as evidenced by the cigarette butt and empty cigarette packages.

For those who live on the street, it is a constant job to keep the walks in any degree of tidiness. Surely, this is something done carelessly and unthinkingly; no one wants his community to look unnecessarily messy and unattractive. The children, quick to respond to example, could be admonished at home and school, and the adults could remember the responsibility of setting an example.

Wants Incorporation Information

Dear Editor:

After reading the article in your last issue, many residents are of the opinion that a definite scheme has already been accepted. They failed to notice the query mark at the termination of the "heading". I would therefore most emphatically point out that no definite steps can or will be taken until the residents have been consulted and given their consent.

Before anyone can properly consider the question it is necessary to find out what expenses will be incurred, and also what revenue may be expected to meet such expenses.

A few items may be given. It will be necessary to build and maintain a city hall or administrative building. A city manager (or mayor) would have to be appointed in addition to a tax collector, sanitary inspector or health doctor, city engineer and one or more stenographers.

A city police station containing a jail would have to be provided, as well as a chief of police and a minimum of three police officers.

A police judge would also be necessary.

The fire department would come under the city control, and the fire chief would be paid by the city, as well as the upkeep of the fire station and all the equpiment.

There are many other items absolutely essential, and must be considered.

Against these expenditures I would invite the chairman of the Chamber of Commerce to acquaint the residents of what revenue would be forthcoming, and the sources from which it would be obtainable.

It is also necessary that residents be convinced that the whole scheme is being put forward in a purely non-partisan manner, and with no idea of providing lucrative jobs for any particular individual or association or their friends.

Perhaps the Chamber of Commerce will reply in your next issue, completing the probable list of expenditures and estimated revenue.

A straight forward statement will merit and secure the confidence of residents, and, if approved, their heartfelt cooperation.

Yours faithfully,
GEO. E. ARLIDGE.

Editor's Note: The Press is appreciative of such letters of interst and will publish soon information as suggested in the above letter. The data is being gathered by the Chamber of Commerce committee who intend to present accurate estimates of financial expenditures and incomes, and all other information concerning the matter.

WASHINGTON. — Some people are wondering whether the fact-finding board for the meat packing industry took the trouble to read the newspapers. If so, they might not have recommended that the housewife bear the main burden of the cost of increased wages in the meat packing industry.

The fact-finding board, which included Dr. Edwin E. Witte of Wisconsin niversity, Chief Justice Raymond W. Starr of the Michigan Supreme court, and Clark Kerr, former chairman of the meat packing branch of the War Labor Board—three able men—decided that a 16-cent pay increase was fair and equitable for meat packing workers. But they added that only five cents of this was "absorbable by the meat industry without price or subsidy relief."

In other words, the fact finders recommended that the big meat packers could pay only 5 cents of the 16-cent wage increase out of their own pockets. The rest would have to be passed on to the consumer or the government. Their report was filed Feb. 7.

However, early in December, long before the fact-finding board was appointed, a number of smaller meat packing plants had already signed contracts with the CIO and AFL for 15 cents an hour pay increase without any strings attached regarding increased meat price.

The small packers who signed such agreements included Hygrade Food Products of New York, George A. Hormel of Austin, Minn., and others in the Chicago area.

Apparently, the fact finders did not take this into consideration. Apparently also, they ignored the fact that Swift and company previously had agreed to a pay boost of 10 cents an hour without any strings attached regarding increased meat prices to the housewife.

For, despite Swift's offer of 10 cents an hour and the smaller companies' increase of 15 cents, the fact finders recommended that only 5 cents of the 16-cent increase could be paid for by meat packers. The remaining 11 cents will be passed on to the housewife—unless the government votes a subsidy.

BREAD WASTE SCANDAL

Department of agriculture sleuths have been doing some quiet checking of unscrupulous bakeries which violate bread sales regulations in order to kill off competition.

Despite the fact that the nation has been forced on a "dark bread" diet to help feed war-starved peoples of the world, thousands of loaves of good bread are still going to waste, or being fed to hogs and chickens.

It works like this:

If a big bakery is trying to grab business away from a competing bakery, it will begin supplying grocery stores on a "consignment basis", which means that grocers' shelves are loaded up with supplies of bread in excess of what they can sell.

The following day — sometimes the same day—drivers pick up the unsold loaves and replace them with fresh stock, charging the grocer only for the bread actually sold. Idea is to promote sales of a particular brand of bread because of its "freshness".

This is a violation of war food order No. 1, but it hasn't stopped certain bakeries in Houston, Texas, Richmond, Va., San Francisco, Cleveland, Kansas City, and St. Louis from carrying on the practice on a huge scale.

Instead of making their returned stocks of one-day-old bread available at a reduced price to poor families, the loaves frequently wind up in garbage bins. One Texas farmer who tipped off the department of agriculture about conditions in Houston said he had been buying wagon-loads of bread "fresh enough to eat" to feed his hogs and chickens.

ATOM VS. BATTLESHIP

Unless President Truman does something drastic about it very soon, the forthcoming atomic tests in the Pacific, scientists say, may turn out to be a study in water-spouts instead of atomic energy.

On-the-surface atomic-bomb explosions, the scientists claims, will add nothing to the knowledge already accumulated from previous explosions at New Mexico, Hiroshima and Nagasaki, except that we may learn the size and damage of the world's largest water spout.

The town of Campbell has been flooded with water since midnight last Monday. It has had the appearance of a Venecian city, excepting the boats. Old residents say there was quite a flood 20 years ago but it did not compare with the present condition.

Monday evening the bulkhead a mile and a half up the Los Gatos creek gave away and allowed the greater part of the water of the stream to sweep down over the orchards and fields toward Campbell. The water reached town about 11 o'clock and since then every street has been a rushing torrent. Many basements and cellars are full of water and wells have been caving in. Among which are the wells of the Campbell Water Company, which supply the town. The pumps were disabled but to what extent is not known. The supply of water in the tank did not last long. For a few hours it seemed there was a probability of a water famine. However, the Ainsley Packing Company, from which source the town formerly received its water supply, was in shape to connect with the mains and their pumping plant was put to work. Just what damage was done to the town water plant cannot be determined until the wells can be pumped out.

BLOSSOM DAY

California wears one jewel,
'Tis the fairest of the fair;
Bright upon her shapely bosom
Shines the vale of Santa Clare.

A hundred million blossoms,
Shed their perfume to the air
When the fruit trees ope their petals
In this valley of Saint Clare.

On Blossom Day we will rally,
In fair Santa Clara valley,
We will steep our souls in beauty
We will forget the stern word—duty.

We will revel in the glory,
We will cast aside all care,
In this land of God, most rare,
In the Valley of Sainte Clare.

---Clara Beebe Baldwin.

San Francsico was the subject of a feature story, with colored photographs, in the first issue of the new Curtis magazine, Holiday, in addition to recent write-ups in the Christian Science Monitor and the Saturday Evening Post.

The article, written by Frank J. Taylor, said that San Francisco is tidying up after its wartime efforts, and preparing once more for "its familiar role of host to people from all over the world." Taylor hailed the return of the city's "oldtime excitement and color", and predicted a bigger influx of tourists than ever before in its history.

Pictures of Old Temple Wanted

Who has a picture of the Masonic Temple in the old gold mining town of Columbia, California?

A statewide search is being made for photographs, paintings, plans and specifications and minute description of the old structure, built by Columbia Lodge No. 28, F. & A. M., in the '50's, and torn down in the early '90's after Columbia Lodge consolidated with Tuolumne Lodge No. 8, of Sonora. Masonic circles, the Columbia Historic Park Association and the California State Chamber of Commerce's travel and recreation committee have joined forces in the search, as a prelude to rebuilding the historic structure in the restoration of the famous old gold town.

The Masonic Temple was a two-story structure, standing across the street from Columbia's old theater. The upper floor was used for lodge meetings; the lower floor was occupied by mercantile firms.

Any information will be welcome, according to Leon O. Whitsell, Burlingame, chairman of the California Grand Lodge's committee on Masonic history. This may be sent to Mr. Whitsell, to Dr. James E. Travel To Mexico Not Advised Now

Discomforts and inconveniences involved in Mexican travel, at the present time are such that motorists planning a tour south of the border are advised to postpone their trips until conditions improve.

This warning was issued by the California State Automobile Association on the basis of first-hand investigation of conditions, following many complaints concerning travel conditions in Mexico. The investigation brought out the following facts:

Accommodations are exceedingly scarce, just as they are in the United States. Rates are about the same as they are in the States.

Tires are hard to obtain, although they can be had through black markets at about $100 each.

Gasoline is scarce due to the recent railroad strike. Motorists should carry extra gasoline in five and ten-gallons cans for emergencies and keep filld up in the larger cities where supplies are easier to obtain.

Visitors must be prepared to undergo some discomforts and inconveniences, and, occasionally, extra expense, until the supply of accommodations and tires catches up with demand and until the distribution of gasoline is again normal.

Because of these reasons, only those willing to endure some inconvenientces and discomforts should drive to Mexico at present.

Simpson Seeks Nomination

Roy E. Simmons recently announced his candidacy for election to the position of State Superintendent of Public Instruction Simpson was appointed last November to this office, which is non-partisan.

In a public statement released today Simpson said:

"I am a candidate for election to the non-partisan office of State Superintendent of Public Instruction, to which office I was appointed by Governor Earl Warren to fill the vacancy created by the death of Dr. Walter F. Dexter.

"I will use my influence, experience, and authority to the end that the schools of California will follow the best educational policies so that all of California's youth will be educated in those fundamentals essential to the best American citizenship.

"Schools are and must forever be non-partisan in attitude and action—so, likewise, must be those who administer the schools. As long as I am Superintendent of Public Instruction, I shall continue to solicit, without regard for political affiliation, the counsel of the public, the public's elected representatives and school administrators and teachers, to the end that the schools shall truly reflect the spirit of a democratic society."

Simpson was born in Santa Rosa, was educated at the University of California, at Pomona College, and at Claremont Colleges where he received his Master's degree. Boy Scouts Go On Weekend Trip

Moreland Boy Scouts Troop 36 went on a two-night camping trip to the Pinnacles National Monument recently. The boys got out early from school Friday afternoon and Mr. R. Herschback, scoutmaster, and Mr. L. L. Miller, assistant scoutmaster, accompanied them in Mr. Hershback's truck.

The camping place was reached at 8:30, and the boys set up a camp. Saturday morning they got up at 7 and went hiking over the High Peaks trail. The trail was very scenic and in places there were railings to keep from falling off. The Pinnacles were formed by volcanic eruptions 30 million years ago and were aided by water and weather.

After arriving back at camp the boys went through the "Caves" which were formed by a stream flowing through a volcanic rock. The caves are about one-half mile long and are equipped with electric lights, but they were not on when the boys went through the first time. These caves have quite a history and are very "spooky". Many Mexican bandits were supposed to have hidden there. After going through the caves some of the boys hiked to Chalone Peak. The highest point in the Pinnacles was 3,287 feet high, which was a 10-mile round trip.

After supper two of the boys went through the "Caves" at night to see how scared they could get. They surely did, especially when a bat flew into them. The next day the boys went to the old Pinnacles and into some caves there.

Then we packed up and left for home. All the camping was done by patrols and each patrol camping and cooking by itself.

An unprecedented program for long distance expansion

Thousands of miles of new circuits will be built on the Pacific Coast

During 1945, we handled more than 346 million long distance calls . . . an increase of some 57 million over the previous year.

That means we handled close to a million calls every day.

To meet the ever-increasing demand, we are now making an unprecedented expansion in long distance facilities on the Pacific Coast. Thousands of miles of new circuits are being built; special vacuum tube equipment is being installed to boost the number of calls existing lines can handle; new toll and long distance switchboards are being added.

Yes, we're expanding long distance facilities in many ways and preparing for the many new improvements to come. We're on our way to providing a better long distance service than you ever dreamed possible.

DR. JAY JACKSON,
85 South First St.,
San Jose, Calif.

For more than six months, your gas and electric company has been carrying on a consistent national advertising campaign to bring new business and industry to Northern California.

This advertising with colorful illustrations has been keyed to one dominant theme—"Northern California, the industrial center of the new Pacific World."

Four main objectives, important to every community in this area, have been the goal of this series of advertisements. These objectives are:

1. To hold much of the wartime gains of business and industry as permanent assets here.

2. To help in the reconversion and expansion of existing business and industry.

3. To attract new business and industry to Northern California.

4. To absorb in productive work the greatly increased population, the recently acquired force of skilled labor and the thousands of veterans who plan to live and prosper in Northern California.

Already we have abundant evidence that our national advertising has opened many eyes and minds throughout the Nation to the great future shaping up for this region.

This ambitious program is being carried on in complete cooperation with local committees, service clubs, industrial groups, chambers of commerce and other civic organizations.

We shall keep this advertising at work for Northern California well into 1946.

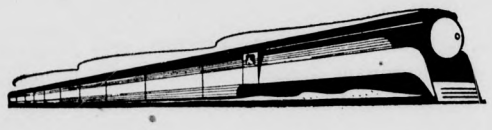
"NEXT TIME, TRY THE TRAIN"



At long last we can see our way out of the woods. No longer is there a backlog of veterans waiting for transportation to their homes. The peak movement seems to be definitely over.

We want to sincerely thank all the civilians who refrained from traveling to make room for these men. And we want to point out that now some space is available on some Southern Pacific trains for you who wish to travel.

In other words, we can say "Next time, try the train", but as yet we can't say it very loud.

There is now quite a bit of space available in coaches and chair cars. Sleeping car space is tighter in comparison, but considerably more plentiful than it was, especially on certain trains.

Please call us if you're planning a trip anywhere. We'll do our best to get you the reservations you want.

No time limit on reservations

On and after March 15, you can make reservations as far in advance as you wish. The ODT order requiring you to make them no more than 14 days in advance has been repealed.

Three meals a day!

Dining cars on Southern Pacific trains are now serving three meals a day instead of two.

More improvements on the way

With our heavy war load easing, we will soon speed up trains and return the lounge cars and other refinements in service that we had to discontinue during the war.

Meanwhile we are going full speed ahead with an ambitious program of new streamlined trains that will be the finest the world has ever seen.

Miss Joan Kennedy Wed

At an afternoon ceremony last Sunday in Westminster Presbyterian church, San Jose, Miss Joan Kennedy, daughter of Mrs. A. B. Kennedy, became the bride of Frank Wilcox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd O. Wilcox of Santa Clara. The Rev. Dwight Small officiated at the rites.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Frank Schemmel of San Jose, wore an ivory satin gown fashioned with a train. In addition she wore a fingertip veil and carried a bouquet of white butterfly orchids surrounded by white hyacinths and cyclamens.

Her cousin, Miss Virginia Robinson of Los Gatos, was maid of honor and her two bridesmaids were the benedict's sister, Mrs. Willian Gray Jr., and his cousin, Miss Margery Wilcox, both of Santa Clara. All three wore frocks of peach marquisette with white carnations in their hair and also fashioned into bouquets.

The best man's duties were performed by the bridegroom's brother, Capt. Irving Wilcox, Santa Clara. Ushers were Lt. Dave Farley, Campbell, and William Richards, Santa Clara.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the bride's home. For the occasion, Mrs. Kennedy, mother of the bride, wore a gown of powder blue with a flowered hat. The benedict's mother wore an ice-blue gown also with a flowered hat. Both mothers wore orchid corsages.

When the young couple left for a honeymoon at Carmel, the new Mrs. Wilcox was wearing a brown and yellow ensemble.

The bride attended Campbell High school and San Jose State college and the benedict has recently been released from the Army in which he served as a captain in both the European and Pacific theaters. They will make their home in Phelps Ave.

The Book Mark

by vivian

It's about time the chills and shivers fans had a break and heard about some of the latest and bloodiest of the horror tales, so here goes with a few of the most thrilling.

We'll start off with the one by Erle Stanley Gardner, "The D. A. Breaks a Seal". That is about all need be said for that one, but for the information of the uninitiated here is a tip, if you haven't met the D. A. I'm sorry for you and recommend you get acquainted right away.

Next on the list is a new one by Frances Crane, "The Shocking Pink Hat", a new Pat Abbott mystery. The scene is San Francisco, which to me is a thrill. There are lots of familiar spots in this one. Mr. S. . . . one of the most avid whodunits I know, said it was a good one for his money and that is enuf said, believe me. He is not easy to please.

Now comes another exciting spy mystery called "The Fifth Man" by Manning Coles, author of "Green Hazard". It might be a true story, embellished a bit; surprising if it isn't. If you are a Coles fan like Mrs. G. . . ., you will want to give yourself another treat. She said it was one of the best in a long time.

In another Crime Club selection entitled "Dark Road" by Doris Miles Disney, we get something different. This time a beautiful woman marries a man she doesn't love because he can give her security and respectability, but she meets a man she does love and the problem is to get rid of Mr. number one. She does a very neat job of it, but an irrelevant quirk of fate, another person's lie, finally puts the police and an insurance investigator on a trail that leads to the mystery of the hand-wrought nails and the Chinese box and which ends at her door. Mrs. H. . . . liked this one, and she is such a nice quiet little lady you would never think she would go near a spine-killer like this. You can't tell about people which makes them so much like people.

One more and I promise not to bring this up again for a while. "The Pavilion", by Hilda Lawrence. No detective this time, the Beauregards decide to keep things to themselves and do their own detecting. They've made out very well three times before and do it again in this one. The eerie atmosphere owes something to insanity, but the killer is as sane as killers ever can be. This author wrote "A Time To Die" and "Blood Upon the Snow". If you like to imagine yourself a super sleuth this is the one for you. Mrs. M. . . . said she knew she could have done as well. I hope not to do a murder around her.

Good night, and sweet dreams.

What the superior man seeks is in himself; what the small man seeks is in others.—Confucius.
